

This is a detailed technical drawing of a site plan, likely a map of a residential or commercial area. The drawing shows a grid of streets, buildings, and various landmarks. A prominent red line runs vertically through the center of the plan, possibly indicating a boundary or a specific route. Numerous numerical values are scattered throughout the drawing, likely representing coordinates or measurements. The drawing is labeled "M. A. 1900" in the center, suggesting it is a map from that year. The overall appearance is that of a historical or archival map.
